13. [] ADMINISTRATIVE Robert Wolthius, White House, called to say they have scrubbed the briefing on Turkey for certain members of Congress. He said they decided to go with Secretary of Defense Schlesinger because of the problems CIA is having on the Hill. I told him the House Armed Services Intelligence Subcommittee was coming out tomorrow and we could try to talk to them about it.

14. [] ADMINISTRATIVE Called Russ Rourke, in the office of Jack Marsh, Counsellor to the President, and told him I had been trying to get to Marsh for several days on a number of topics without success. I told him we had a request from Senator Edmund S. Muskie's (D., Maine) Senate Government Operations Subcommittee on Intergovernmental Relations for the Director to testify. He said he had written a memo to Marsh on this. He asked if we knew if Representative Otis G. Pike (D., N. Y.) and Representative Robert McClory (R., Ill.) were going to testify. I said there is some doubt and this could be a big factor. Rourke said Paul Ahern, on the staff of Representative McClory, called him to caution them the Chairman intended to call up a Sense of the House Resolution which says the House has the right to get the materials from the White House. He said Mr. McClory would do whatever he could to forestall it. I also mentioned the trouble we are having getting the SALT transcript resolved from the NSC staff and he said he would try to break it loose.
